Vyaparionline

Dedicated user interface for each shops...

Customers can browse, purchase and review on their favourite shop...

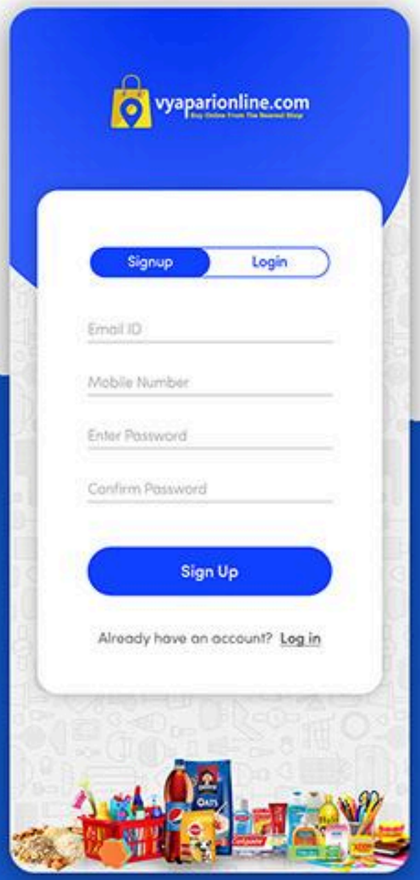
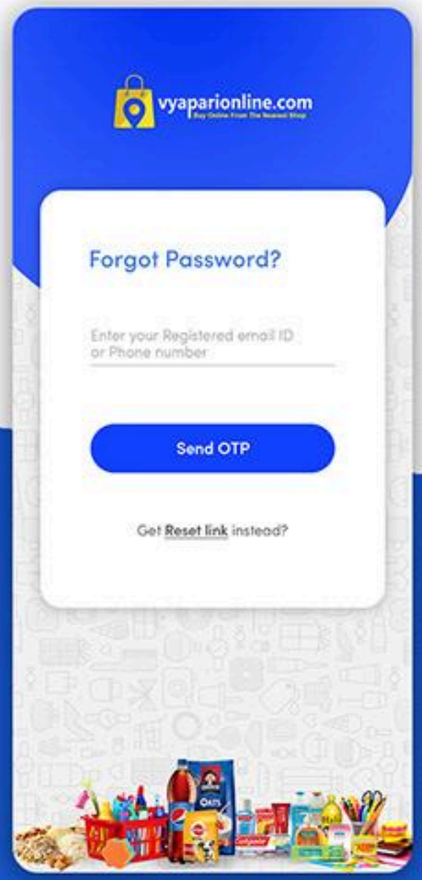
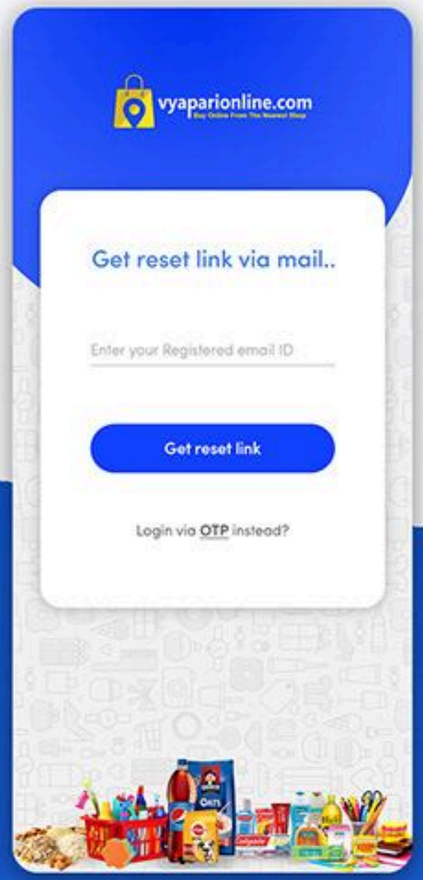
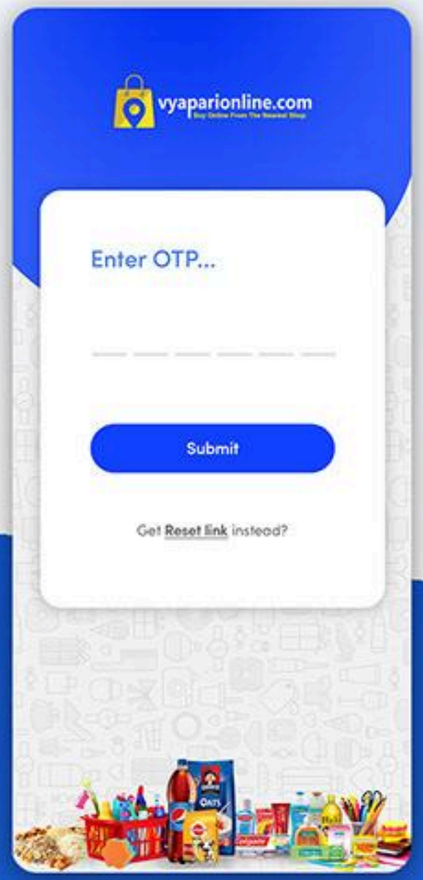
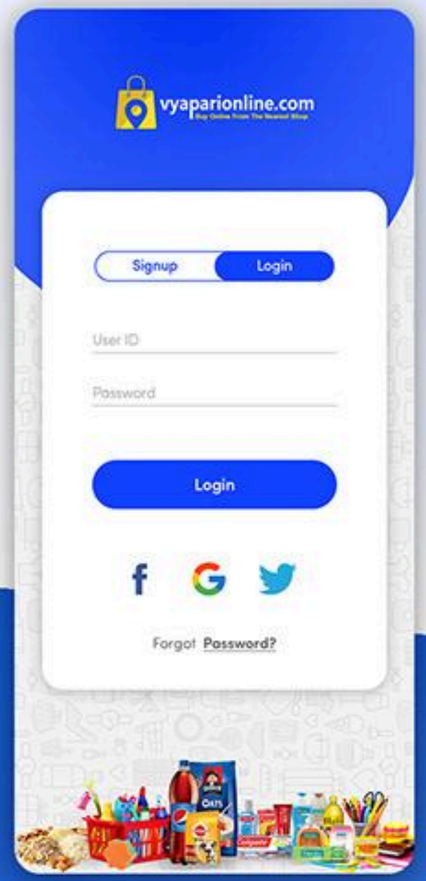
Login & Signup











One of the biggest challenge was integrating Four modes of Homescreen Interface without losing the user experience...

Two shopping modes (Local Shopping & Courier Shopping) and, Two viewing modes (Shop view & Product view).

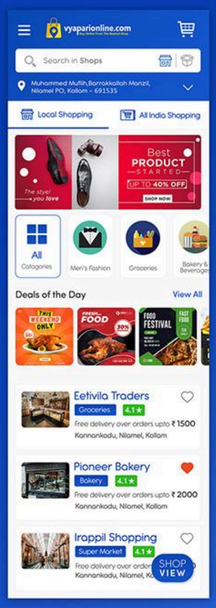
Local Shopping and Courier Shopping are two shopping modes making the application unique from traditional normal E-commerce applications...

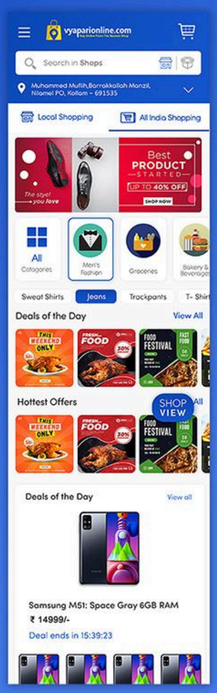


Local Shopping

For traditional online shopping from random sellers and in house suppliers.

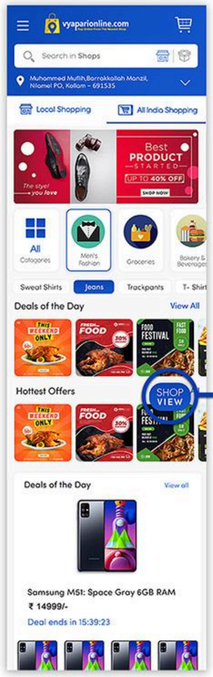
Courier Shopping

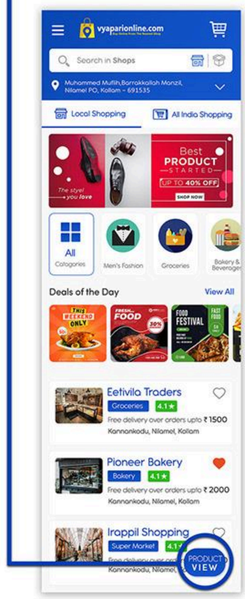
Local shopping is meant for shopping from local retailer shops. Shops will be shown respective of user's location



Application is designed to quickly switch between both shopping modes, giving the application a hybrid feel, as requirred by the client...

Shop view& Product view switching floating button





Product view is the regular E-commerce homescreen view, that lists the best offers and features products on the homescreen

Shop view is a unique feature of vyaparionline, that lists shops nearby. Using shopview, users can directly get into a shop's "shopping area"

Shop spawning criteria

- Location
- Purchase history
- Personalised suggetion from AdSense and FB
- Favourite shops selected by users

Searchbar also have two modes in searching,

Product Search

Search in Products

Product search is the traditional seatrch mode, that searches products available, as in a regular E-commerce application's search mode

&

Shop Search

Search in Shops

Shop search is another search mode, that searches Shops available , then the user can select the shop from the list and start shopping within the shop itself.

By default, search mode within the app will be Universal search, that searches for the keyword in both, shop and product database.

But users can change the search mode after opening the app (Between Shop search and Product search), as according to their search requirments...

SHOP OPENING SCREEN

Shop's opening screen has divided into three tabs...

Home

Shows best offers from the shop &
featured products
